THIS PAGE IS PLANNED EREST THE HOME CIRCL

GOOD NEWS FOR YOU. 12½c.

FOR LADIES'

EMBROIDERED

HANDKERCHIEFS,

WORTH FROM 25 to 50c.

We had to buy 900 dozen of these to get them at this price-12 1-2c. ain't much, and you are always using Han kerchiefs. Buy now, while they are cheap. Supposing you have enough for nowthat don't matter.

3c. yard

FOR DRESSMAKERS' CAMBRIC.

On our third floor this Thursday and Friday Dressm kers' Cambric, black and all desirable

S. Kann, Sons & Co. 8th and Market Space.

Underwriters' Sale of

Ladies': Muslin

From the New York sale of D. E. Sicher & Co.

Underwear

Every Garment damaged by water.

3d floor. Take elevator.

S. Kann, Sons & Co. 8th and Market Space.

Miss Brewster, of 707 Sixth street northeast, Washington, says: "My people have used Brown's Iron Bitters for Makria, stomach and Liver troubles, and it has never failed to benefit, they think it the best medicine they ever tried."

Fresh Laid Eggs.

You cannot improve on a nice fresh egg—the trouble is to get fresh ones. We look after that. Our Fancy Eggs are put up in one dozen patent pocket boxes, and every egg is guaranteed fresh. The price is no higher than others ask for inferior qualities.

bquare Marble and Glass Stands, Center Markot

Plush Capes

40 Cents on a Dollar.

A chance for you Ladies to buy a handsome garment for very little money, as we are determined to close out every cape or coat which we have in stock. Plush Capes, former price $8-Now $3.49 Plush Capes, former price $10-Now $4.89

Plush Capes, former price $12-Plush Capes, former price $15-

Plush Capes, former price$20-Now $8.98 One lot of 19 Double Cloth Capes, worth $3. we offer at $1.39

806 Seventh Street N. W. 1924-1926 Penna. Ave.

UNDERTAKERS. J. WILLIAM LEE UNDERTAKER 332 Pa. Ave. N. W. First-class service. Those, 1385.

DIED. McGREGOR—On the 30th instant, Raymond A. J., son of John and Genevieve Johnson McGregor, aged nine years, eight months, three days.

Funeral from the residence of his parents, 1246 Maryland avenue northeast, Friday, January 31.

Stall's shoes

SUPREME COURT DINED AT THE WHITE HOUSE

President and Mrs. Cleveland Entertained the Justices.

East Room and State Dining Hall Were Brilliant With Lights and Banks of Flowers.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland enter tained at the Executive Mansion last evening in honor of the justices of the Supreme Court

The East room, where the party bidder dine assembled, was brilliantly itluminated, and the decorations of tropical plants and flowers were most elaborate. Scarlet and white blooms were used to enliven the greenery throughout the re-

Out in the hall the Marine Band, led by Fancinili, played bravely as the procession of wise men and handsome women moved with formal step to the banquet.

In the dining room the long table was set with glittering service of gold and sparkling glass. Masses of Jacquemmot resea filled the long gold trays used on tate occasions and crimson shades roully capped the tapers of the gold candelabra.

Mr. Cieveland escorted Mrs. Fuller, who vore a decodete gown of black satin and jet en traine.

Mrs. Cleveland, who walked with Chief Justice Fuller, Wore a superb costume of dack satin, the horice spangled with silver and triumed about the corsage with a sliver network fringe. Diamond ornaments were in her hair and about her neck, and she were near the left shoulder of her bodice a cluster of scarlet hybiscus

Those present were: Chief Judice and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. Justice Field and Mrs. Field, Mr. Justice Harlam and Mrs. Harlam, Mr. Justice Gray and Mrs. Gray, Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice Brown and Mrs. Brown, Mr. Justice Shiras and Mrs. Shiras, Mr. Jus-tice White and Mrs. White, Mr. Justice Peckham and Mrs. Peckham, the Attorney General and Mrs. Harmon, Senator and Mrs. Hoar, Senator and Mrs. Pugh, Senator and Mrs. Martin, Repre-centative and Mrs. Henderson, Repreentative and Mrs. Washington, Mr. Jus-ice Morris and Miss Morris; Mr. Justice Shepard and Mrs. Shepard, Solicitor General and Mrs. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Milburn of Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. James Lowndes, Mr. E. Randolph Robinson and Miss Robinson, Mrs. Stanley Matthews, of gold, Mrs. Harlan, belietrope satin ornamented with jet and ostrich plumes; Mrs. Field, yellow cut velvet, with corsage bouquet of American Beauty roses; Mrs. While, due satin and point face; Mrs. Shiras, grey satin; Mrs. Peckham, pearl grey atin, brocaded with chrysanthemums. trimmed with lace and ornaments of diaoads and pearls; Mrs. Harmon, white setin with diamonds; Mrs. Conrad, black satin

Seven wine glasses were set beside each

Mrs. Townsend, of No. 22 Lafavette square, has sent out cards for a dinner o be given Thursday, February 13. The affair is to be in connection with the dance, which will take place on this oc-Calvin Brice.

Miss Herbert has sent out cards for February 4, for a reception, 9 to 12, to be followed by dancing. Miss Herbert will also entertain at a cotillion, February

Mrs. N. L. Jeffries and her daughter. Ms: Armstrong, entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of their guest, Miss Lanier Crocker of Cleveland, Bridesmaid roses made up the decorations, combined with feros.

Guests were: the Misses Stevenson, the Misses Scott, Miss Goodfellow, Miss Guy of Baltimore, the Misses Shepard, daughters Norton, Miss Highborn, Miss Schweringen

Miss Crocker attended the reception at where she was surrounded during the entire evening by the diplomatic corps, with whom she has been the greatest favorite during her visit to Washington.

Mrs. Hubley Ashton entertained at a nucleon yesterday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Ashton. White hyacinths with maldenhair ferns were used as table deco rations. Among the ladies present were Mrs. In mont, wife of the Secretary of War; Mrs Lieber, wife of Judge Advocate General Norman Lieber; Mrs. Train, Mme. Guzman, Mrs. Fuller and others.

The ladies of the Southern Relief Society George Lothrop Bradley, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Loring, Mrs. W. H. Clagett, Mr. will be at home to all their friends at Na tional Rifles' Armory, Tuesday evening, next, at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Vilas, Mrs. and Miss Gordon and others received yesterday afternoon at the Arlington. The handsome drawing rooms were prettily ornamented with white flowers and palms, and throngs of visitors called during the afternoon.

A most delightful reception was given to the "Mizpah Branch" of the Ministering Children's League, by Miss Katherine Chipman at her studio in "The Cairo" on Wednesday evening.

The occasion brought out the lads and lassies and an enjoyable time passed amid works of art. Miss Chipman was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Constance, Miss Boynton of Bristol, R. L., and Miss Daisy Grant, whose genius as a musician is marked. Miss Grant called forth great applicate for her execution upon the violin.

Miss Darrell chaperoned the young ladies, among whom were the Misses Magnuder.

Laub. Swing, Lockhart, Billioph, and Thompson.

Mr. Darrell with Masters Parker,

W. Wasstaff, E. Wasstaff, Ball. Wernioks, Scott, Lea, Chipman, represented the loys of the league.

Mrs. Charles H. Poor and Miss Poor enter-ained at a delightful tea from 1 to 7 at their home. No. 1614 Twenty-first street northwest, yesterday afternoon, The drawing rooms were dainfully decorated with polins. Bride roses, and bink carnations. Standing near the door of the first drawing room, Mrs. Poor and Miss Poor extended a cordial greeting to the many friends who called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Poor wore a gown of black veivet and lace, and Miss Poor, Roman striped cause bodies finished with white satin, and black satin skirt.

The ladies assisting were: Mrs. C. C. Glover, in Dresden silk, Miss Barney, Dreslen striped silk: Miss Cingett, Miss Rents Rodgers, Miss Sherisian, Miss McCammon, Miss Condil-Smith, Miss Corning of Alsaur, N. Y. Moss Roosevelt Scovel, Miss Tenin, and Miss Jane Taft.

Miss Cassels, in a gown of black and white silk, served the punch, and Mrs. John Poor, in black saim, presided at the tea table, which was extremely pretty. The center design was a silver distr of growing yellow talips, surrounded with growing yerow image, sarrounds with madden hair ferns. The yellow tapers in the silver canaderation were capped with yellow and white shades, and the yellow nd white effect was carried out in the onfections and table appointments. Some of those who called during the Some of those who called during the sum, on Thorsday evening, has been re-ifternoon were Mrs. George W. Childs. peried in The Times.

some presence of her father and the gracious sweetness of her mother, who is a member of the wel-known Roesevelt family of New York.

Surgeon Genetal and Mrs. Sternberg will give a dinner February 5.

evening at her home, corner of R and Twentieth streets, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser, jr.

At one side of the broad carved oak stairense a string on testra discoursed de lightful music, screened from view by graceful prims. The bajireson, which is one of the band-somest in Washington, is bong with gold ofor brounde and finished in quartered oak. On the mantet were placed immercels of purple and green ordins in a bed of matien thir feros. The fibrary, which opens into the ballesian, was decorated with yellow journals, plux extrations, and points. During the whole evening a support was served in the closing room.

Some of those present were. The mem hers of the dipiomatic curps, Mr. Charles McChaley, Miss Nott, the Misses Bourdman, Miss Poor, Miss Hoy.

at the home of Adela de Johnson, the Mr. Alexander Frederick Jenkins John-

Mr. and Mrs. Chatard, Mr. and Mrs. Hill.
Mr. and Mrs. Hay, Mrs. dordon
Mr. Kay, Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Miss
Broant, Attorney General and Mrs. HarMrs. Johnson, cloud being snow white.
Mrs. Johnson, cloud recovery Mr. Kay. Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Miss draineries through the drawing regard the drawing regard to receive her guests, form, Miss Gasa, Mr. and Mrs. Howler, gowned in sapphire bine velvet trimmed senator and Mrs. Elams, Miss Pavis, Miss about the bodies with silver. The vest

DOLL

DRESS MODEL.

EACH STNDAY PAPER WILL

The Times gives away with every copy next

The conception of the costume is at once strik-

CONTAIN ONE, SEPARATE AND

Sunday its fifth Doll Dress Model, in colors, en-ing and beautiful, and the beautiful colored plate shows its effect when made up. The costume is de-

In the striking iridescent shades peculiar to the Persian coloring.

Loops of shaded ribbon standout from the elbow cuffs, and left side of basque, filigree buttons are placed on the jacket fronts.

fitting velvet collar. The basque of velvet is rendered glove-fitting by means of the usual double bust darts, under-arm and cluded in the under-arm seams, the closing being effected inv sibly at the left shoulder and under the edge of the left lacket front. Long, full puffs are gracefully disposed over c mf mable sleeve linings and finished below the elbow with pointed flaring the top. In front, and on the sides, falling in undulating folds of ripples below the hips. Three separate godets form the back.

each expanding in the tubular folds now fashionable. A wide facing of haircloth gives the skirt a proper set at the lower edge.

Illinois.

was of white transparent gauze, ruffled and frilled. She carried a bouquet of white

Guests were presented to those in lin on arriving. Mr. Alexander Frederick Jenkins-Johnson, husband of the scuip-tress, stood beside her, to receive the congratulations of friends; Mrs. Cora L. V.

Richmond, Mr. Charles G. Johnson and Miss Stuples making up the party. After chatting pleasantly a while, the guests found their way to the studio of Mrs.

Johnson on the upper floor. Here the clever but not yet complete portrait of Mrs. Richmond was exhibited, togethe with busts of Dr. Thomas of Chicago, and the late Mrs. Whitney of Knox College,

Among those who called were Miss Josephine Hyde, Mr. E. H. Breckinridge, Mrs.

Lynn, Miss White, Miss Bennett, Mrs. P. B.

A reception will be given this evening at

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Mercer entertained

Mrs. J. Y. Taylor has cards out for a tea

Mrs. G. Richard Thompson will receive today from 3 to 6 at No. 1907 G street.

Mrs. I. Gans and Miss Richie Gans will

Mrs. A. B. Brown, 1528 P street, will not receive today on account of sickness

Mrs. Edgar Allao of No. 1501 Eleventh

Mme. Patenotre at the embassy.

brose and many others.

in the family.

The stylish skirt is shaped with six gores, that fit smoothly at side back gores, and a curved seam in centre back.

Blue ve vet is here handsomely combined with oriental silk,

Fa s of creamy point face fall on each side of the close

The deep yoke and jacket fronts of O lental slik are in-

IN PRETTY COLORS.

titled a " Ladies' Afternoon Toilet."

scribed as follows:

Curry, Maj. and Mrs. Miles, Miss Miles, Mrs. Ralph Cross Johnson, Miss Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Steele, Miss Steele, Miss

alian James, the Misses Patten, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Whittemore, Miss Wilcox,

Mr. Van Ness, Philips, Mr. Curtis Gilmore

Jesse Brown, Capt. Heese, Mr. Hunt, Mr.

John T. Davis, Miss Marrow, Mr. Frederick

May, Mrs. William Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Hoy, the Misses Hoy, Mrs. Alex. Magruder,

Mr. and Mrs. Langhorne, the Misses Lang-horne, Mr. Marshall Langhorne, Dr. and

Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin

Bartlett, Miss Bartlett, Gen. and Mrs. Rochester, Miss Rochester, Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Hinkley, Countess de Sibour, Dr. and Mme. Guzman. Admiral and Mrs.

tamsay, Senorand Mme. Covarrubias, Baron and Baroness Theilmann, Senator and Mrs.

Lindsey, Mr. and Mme. Albertini, Mrs.

nd Mrs. Rockbill, Miss Rockbill, Miss

Edie, Mr. J. R. Edie, Mr. and Mrs. James

Hopkins, Lieut. Myers, Dr. and Mrs. Anderson, Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, the Michler, Mr. Justice Brown, Miss Pitts,

Justice and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Board

nan, the Misses Boardman, Mrs. William

Winthrop, Judge and Mrs. Nott, Miss Nott, nd Mrs. Lodge and Secretary and Miss

Miss Clagett has issued cards for a lunchcon for February 6, in honor of Miss Corning of Albany, N. Y.

Miss Cornella Roosevelt Scovel of New York, is the guest of Madame Albertini for a short stay and will doubtless repeat here her conquests in New York and abroad.

She is a daughter of Chevatier Scovel,

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mist Gale, Commodore and Mrs. Rush, Miss Rush, Admiral and Mrs. Benham, Senator

Fuller, Lieut. Russell, Mr. Eastnan, of the Chilean legation; Capt. Frank three on each side.

Silk Waists.

A windowful of $9, $8, $7, and $6 Silk Waists.

All are now reduced to $4,95

Bon Marche, 314-316 7th St. N W. *

Bernard Lee Grove, Mrs. Liewellyn Eliot he Misses Chapman, Miss Bennett, Miss Stewart of Michigan and Miss Aiken of Miss Re Vilo will entertain a box party at matinee Saturday, to hear the Danirosch Opera Company, in "Siegfried." Miss Yaw. Miss Bertha Shelton, Miss Mac Reed, Messrs, Pischer, Young, Mantell, and Brewer will be her goests.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring Blanchard Mallen will receive from 5 to 9 today.

Miss Marrow gives a tea to meet Miss

Mrs. John W. Foster has sent out cards or a 5 o'clock tea to meet Mrs. McKec.

Mrs. Taylor will give a tea to the Colouist Dames of Washington, at 1727 Q street, Saturday, February 1.

Mrs. and Miss Harris will not receive today, but will be at home Fridays in

Mrs. and Miss Wyville wiff receive to Mrs. W. H. Daw. No. 2301 H street northwest, will not be at home today.

Mrs. Scholield Hoge will not be at home day, but will receive Fridays, February

Mrs. Harry Knight, No. 1024 Eighth reet, will be at home today.

The lecties of Willard's Hotel will no at No. 1249 Ninth street. and Mrs. Hank Schlosberg will be home Sunday. February 2d, to receive their friends from 5 to 9 p. m., 1207 E street

The Charge d'Affaires of the Argentine Republic and Madame Dominguez will give a damer on Priday, January 31, in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Olney.

UNITY CLUB'S MEETING.

Enjoyable Evening Spent in the Parlors of the Litchfield. Thesixin meeting of the Unit; Clab, at the Latchfield Wednesdayersmay was attended by a large sufficier. Mr. James B. Philip was unable to be present on account of proon, of illness, and in his absence. Mr. D. C. Haywood, at the request of Mrs. M. D. Lincoln, and the cittle acted as president protem, Malor J. W. Powell, the well-known weiter, read a beautiful poem entitled "An Indian Myth." The poem was brilliant and full of the intelligence which characterizes the works of the author.

fine and thoroughly enjoyed. Those to participate were Miss Emma Bishop, who rendered a piano solo. Mis- Jessica Tabler, who sing a beautiful song and received a hearty encore: Miss Cecil F. Fletcher read a carky dialect sketch entitled "Mammy's Chillin;" Miss Blanch Mattingly, a solo, which was enthusiastically encored; Mrs. Helen Lee Perguson, recited "Archie Dean" exceptionally well; Miss Lavinia Milliken, accompanied by Miss Helie Bagley, sang a pretty solo, W. MacBarrow recited "The Renemetion" with line dramatic effect. Mrs. M. D. Pickrell furnishing incidental music; Mr. D. C. Haywoodread with splendid effect, a poem written by Mrs. M. C. Hooker.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cousar, Mr. Humphreys Milliken, Miss Laiu Barker, Miss Oran, Mr. J. W Watt. Miss Stella Valc. Mr. M. M. Mc-Laughlin, Miss Mary Simms, Miss Margaret Simms, of Norfolk, Va., Miss Cecil F Fletcher, Mrs. Whipple, Mr. Bessu Beeck W. M. Parrow, Mr. M. D. Peck and wife, Miss Peck. Mrs. Gillet, Miss Hayden, Mrs de Bausset, Mrs. J. D. Walsh, Mr. M. C. Hooker, Miss Sadie L. Hooker, Mrs. Jouy, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ritter, Dr. and Mrs. Robinson, Miss Julia Widdows Mrs. L. M. Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Scott, Prof. Rufus Fuller of Boston, Miss Milliken, Miss Engley, Miss Wynne, Mrs. M. T. Haywood, Mrs. M. D. Lincoln (Bessie Becch). Mr. Henry M. Lincoln, Miss Skule. Miss Morgan, Gen. William Birney, Miss Hendric, Miss Cassie Mac Knight, Mr. James L. Murphy, Miss Elwina A. Pope, Mnic J. Esputa Daly, Miss E-puta, Mrs. M. F Mattingly, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Metcaif, Mrs. M. E. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lee Ferguson, Mr. J. Howard Tabler, Miss Jessica Tabler, Mrs. James Blackburn, Mrs. A. R. Yates, Mr. A. A. Adams, Miss Blanch R. Mattingly, Mr. D. C. Haywood Miss Rosser, Mrs. M. D. Pickreil, Mrs. W. Bowle, Mrs. George C. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. Camp. Mrs. and Miss Crawford, Mrs. J. C. Hester, Miss Emma Bishop, Mr. W. G. Edgar Hamleft and Mr. J. C. Hester.

Jewish Fair Press Committee Met. The press committee of the Hebrew Fair met at the "Ad-Writers' "Club rooms last night. The committee perfected all the plans for their Fair Journal, which promplets the plans for their Fair Journal, which promplets and the plans for their Fair Journal reachable mab

Dickerson, Mrs., Augr. Miss McLean, Mr. A. H. Thompson, Miss Raymond, Miss Amications yet issued for a fair. The Aldine Club had a committee present. These young men offered their services to the press committee, and they will be given supervision of the sale of the Fair Journal. ey will receive subscriptions at the rate 50 cents for the season. Articles by fourteen guests at dinner at their home. No. 1718 Rhode Island avenue, last night. of 50 cents for the season. some of the leading writers have already been received. The press committee sug-gest that those who have written articles or the paper and bave not yet sent them in, kindly do so at once.

Washingtonians in New York.

(Special to The Times.) New York, Jan. 30.—L. V. Benet was among the passengers who sailed on the St. Louis, which took the place of her ster ship, the St. Paul. E. J. Adams, smopolitan; M. Church, J. E. Powell W. H. Rider, Astor; W. B. Lane, Contines P. G. Russell, Hoffman; B. J. Pole, Mor A. A. Connelly, T. A. County, Imperial Eiseman, St. Desk.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS FAIR

It Opens Auspiciously at Odd Fellows' Hall.

fair Friends of the Members Preside Over Dainty Booths and Sell Things of All Kinds

"Get a bug of flour for five cents!" "Let the gypsy tell your fortune!" "Say, mister, don't you want a chance on a beautiful gold watch?" These are the slogans that greet the ear of a visitor to the grand fair in progress at Odd Fellows' Hatt, on Eighth street southeast, under the auspices of Myrde Lodge No. 25. Knights of Pythias.

In the half are nine booths, including an ice cream saloon, and a tent which is presided over by a real gypsy, who, by nears of her knowledge of the stars and books of fate, tells truthfully of the past, present and future for the small sum of

The following gentlemen compose the general committ

general committee

J. J. Murray, chairman; 8. W. Edmunds, treasurer; L. R. Lippincott, secretary; F. M. Hatley, J. W. Count, J. Mitchell, D. Y. Wood, George Murray, C. E. Etcheerger, jr., B. L. Smith, William Reers, E. M. Nevils, F. M. Stromberger, George E. Cornell, Lewis Taute, T. Oscar Jones, H. E. Smith, J. C. Eller, Percy Moore, Paul Sipos, J. A. Cox.

Following is the ladies committee, Mrs. Lida Murray, chairman, Mrs. J. W. Count, Lida Murray, chairman, Mrs. J. W. Count.

Lida Murray, chairman, Mrs. J. W. Count,
Mrs. L. R. Lippincott, Mrs. Susic Snyder,
Mrs. J. W. Lynch, Mrs. Lewis Tuttle, Mrs.
Charles E. Miller, Mrs. F. W. Watson,
Mrs. Mays Mitchell, Mrs. W. F. Beers, Mrs.
H. E. Springer,
The various subcommittees are made up
as follows:

Invitation J. J. Murray, chairman; L. R.

Lippincott, D. J. Snyder, J. W. Count, John M. Mitchell. Printing Frank M. Hatley, chairman; Geo. E. Cornell, W. F. Beers. Music H. E. Smith, chairman; S. W. Ed

necoration -D.Y. Wood, chairman; Frank M. Hailey, W. F. Beers, J. M. Mitchell, J.

Entertainment and Prizes-J. W. Count E. Smab. George Marray, Lewis Tuttle, Purchasing Commission - Frank M. Hatley, chairman; J. W. Count, S. W. Edmunds,

Mrs. Hatley, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Count, Mrs. Lynch. Booth No. 1 is in charge of Mrs. Susie Styder, chairman; Misses Elmira Brown Jessie Chandler, Retta Moulton, May Col-lier, Annie Gill, Elfa Moulton, Florence Mabee, Blanche Childs, and Susie Schroe Mrs. J. Eisemmann will be at home today

Booth No. 2 is conducted by Mrs. H. E. Springer, chairman; Mesdames L. B. Bates, A. Loveday, M. McGuigan, and Miss

Mrs. Mary Mitchell, chairman; Mes fames Susie Jacobs, Alice Ewing, Martin Schneider, and C. Fleishman preside over Booth No. 3. Mrs. J. W. Count, chairman; assisted by ne, is in charge of Booth No. 4. Soda water is dispensed by Mrs. J. W. Lynch, Mits Bessie Brack, and Miss Gertle Sunner. Comiy and other tweets are sold y Mrs. Lewis Tuttle, and her assistants. lises Bateman and Holland.

destames Graham, Hoffmagle, and Dono

her eream is distintily served by Mrs. Miller, assisted by Mrs. Watson and the Misses Parsons. The silver booth is in charge of Mrs. L. R. Lippinsoit and Miss Josie Graham,

February the eighth has been chosen

JEWISH SOCIETY MEETS.

bear Straus Presided and Washing ton Man Read a Paper. Philadelphia, Jan. 30.-The fourth annual meeting of the American Jewish Historical sciety began here this afternoon in the afayette Hotel. The meeting

The society was organized four years ago in New York, and its objects, as well as its research and membership, is non-secarian. It aims to benefit American history by contributing to it such historic material is can be discovered that adds new information on the part that Jews have played in the country's history.

At tonight's session, the president, Os car 8. Straus, delivered his annual address. Tomorrow morning an interesting collection of relies and documents bearing on American-Jewish history will be shown At this session papers will also be presented by Dr. Cyrus Adler of Washington D. C.; David Ferguson of Scattle, Wash, Dr. Herbert Frieden wald of Philadelphia fr. J. H. Hollander of Paltimore; Prof. Morris Jastrow, it., of Philadelphia: Dr. Esq., of New York; George A. Kohut of Berlin; N. Taylor Phillips, esq., of New York; Rev. Dr. David Phillipson of Cincinoati, and Abraham S. Wolf Resenbach of Philadelphia.

Marriage Licenses.

Licenses to marry were issued yesterday o the following: William Taylor and Erndna Kyle. William Johnson and Mary Walley. ore Hicks and Florence France. Charles Harris and Annie White. John Albert and Theresia Frebert Thomas B. Firet and Mary E. Judge.

Buttled With Big Waves.

Lewes, Del., Jan. 30. - The steamer Egremont Castle, British, from Java, via sermuda, reports that on January 20, when 250 miles northeast of Bermuda, she was boarded by tremendous cross seas. She lost furniture and officers' clothing. also her log and all the ship's papers. Her compasses were damaged, and her store room gutted. Several men were injured and she was compelled to obtain a nev register at Bermuda.

King's Paluca

These Prices for one day

Toilet Soaps at 2 cents.

Buttermilk. Glycerine. Elder Flower. Turkish Bath. Brown Windsor. Castile.

$8, $7, $6 Rough Boucle

Jackets, $3.98. Rough Eoucle Jackets, Plain Cloth Jackets—some satin lined—made with full sleeves—ripple back—box front and shield front effects. Regular values, 85, 87 and 85, at

$3.98. Special Table of Trimmed Hats, 98c KING'S PALACE, 812-314 Seventh St. N. W 715 Market Space.

ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

A called meeting of the City School Board was held last night for the purpose of investigating allegations against Mr. William H. Greenwell. Every member was present. Statements were readfrom Charles Dean, Jessie Batts, and others in regard to presents given by Teacher Greenwell to Miss Finch. J. R. N. Curtin, Calvin Butts, Charles Kaus, Charles Warder, J. Bruce, Charles Dean, Frank Butts, and George Butts, gave testimony as to having seen Mr. Greenwell in company with Miss Finch, and as to notes having passed between them. Mr. Greenwell in company with Miss Pinch, and as to notes having passed between them, and that he made her a Christmas present. Mr. Greenwell explained that the notes related to school business entirely, defied that he made her a Christmas present, and produced two affadavits from her family negativing that charge. A resolution was unanimously agreed to approving the course of the superintendent, and the board carried the remainder of the investigation over until the remainder of the investigation over until the next regular meeting.

In the Alexandria corporation court yes-In the Alexandria corporation court yes-ierday William Garey, indicted for larceny from the person, and Martha Parker, col-ored, indicted for petit larceny, were throught into court, they having stated at the jail that they proposed to plend guilty; but when the usual questions were put to them in court by Chrik Beach they changed their minds and plended not guilty. The trial of their cases was set for today. Ed-ward Hughen, William Brawner, Thomas Kelley, M. Levin, H. Kaletski, Thomas Bowney, James Dougherty and Cot Nel-son all plended guilty to an indictment of seiling liquor on Serday. Richard Barnett plended not guilts to selling fluor on seeing aquor on Ser day. Richard Burnett, pleaded not guilty to selling liquor on Sanday, and his case was set for trial on Tree-day next. The case of Dougherty & Neison for selling liquor without a license was continued until the next term, as was ill the cases on the felony docket. The sen all the cases of the leiony docket. The sen-tences in the liquor cases were reserved until all the dealers have been tried. Sev-eral civil cases of minor importance were also disposed of, and a number of motions for corrections of the State assessment on real estate recently made were filed. Court adjourned until today. The magnates of the National Baseball Club of Washington, held its annual meeting resterday evening in the office of Mr. James R. Caton, the local attorney for the company, and organized under the new tharter recently granted by Judge Norton retary and treasurer. The officers with Albert Johnson and P. H. Wagner were chosen directors. The meeting lasted only a few minutes, and the owners of the Wash-ington baseball nine returned to Washing ton at 3 o'clock.

The United States postoffice and custom house here is being thoroughly overhauled and put in order. The interior of the building is now in the hands of the painters, and it is expected that the work will be finished about the end-of next week. When completed the interior of the office will present a very handsome appearance.

Harry Brown, a young man, was arrested yesterday evening on complaint of his fam-ily, who charged him with being drunk and disorderly at his home on Cameron street. He was locked up in a cell at the police station and will have a hearing before the Mayor this morning.

Alexandria Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M., at its meeting list night conferred the degrees of the order upon five candidates and had several applications for membership. The committee having charge of the celebration attending the raising of the American flag upon Peabody and Lee school buildings also had a receting and perfected arrangements for the celebration which will take place February 22. Delegations from the three councils of the junior order in this city went to Washington last night to pay a fraternal visit to Andrew Jackson Council of that city.

The matter of bringing the State asylum from Staunton to this city will be brought before the Business Men's League by Mr. George R. Hill at its next nection.
Delegate William H. May has written Mr.
Hill urging him to have the city offer some inducements to have the asylum located here and some offer will be made.

A successful operation for cancer of the A successful operation for cameer of the breast was performed at the Alexandria Infirmary yesterday by Drs. Slaughter, Howard, Miller and Purvis upon Jennie Davis, a blind woman. The patient stood the operation very well and will recover.

夏 くくくくくくくくくくくくく くく くくくく 夏 Friday's Snaps At Emrich's Markets.

Eggs, per doz. 15c Small Mackerel, per doz. 10c Cream Cheese, per lb. 10c Fresh Shucked Oysters Daily.

1718 14th St. n.w. 13th & N. Y. av. n. w Sth & M Sts. n. w. 215 Indiana ave.n.w.

EMRICH BEEF CO., Main Markets 1306 to 1312 32nd St. N. W.

21st & K Sts. n.w. 20th & Pa. ave. n.w. THE STATE OF THE S